The taxpayer may come back to the intake site for the quality review or to review and sign the completed tax return.

This includes the virtual procedures to send required documents (social security numbers, Form W-2 and other documents) through a secured file sharing system to a designated volunteer for review.

Part II: The Sites Process:

Explain how each process will be followed to assist taxpayers remotely. How will the site manage:

1. Scheduling the appointment

Taxpayers will first complete the 13614-C, and this form 14446. Taxpayers can obtain these documents at the NeighborWorks Umpqua VITA office or online at getyourrefund.org. Taxpayer will call into 887-527-5630 where they will overview a questionnaire. Once the volunteer confirms that the taxpayer has all needed documents they will set up an appointment to come to a scan site.

2. Securing Taxpayer Consent Agreement

This consent agreement will be scanned in with all of their documents at the scan appointment.

3. Performing the Intake Process (secure all documents)

Taxpayers will scan all of their tax documents at the scan site at their scan appointment.

4. Validating taxpayer's authentication (Reviewing photo identification & Social Security Cards/ITINS)

Taxpayer must bring valid photo ID for the taxpayer to the appointment. Additionally the taxpayer must bring social security cards or ITIN notices for all household members.

5. Performing the interview with the taxpayer(s)

By calling into 877-527-5630 taxpayers will conduct an interview with a volunteer. This volunteer will go through the 13614-C and an additional questionnaire to ensure the taxpayer has all relevant information for the scan appointment.

6. Preparing the tax return

A volunteer will be remotely working in preparing your tax return. Volunteers are provided with computer equipment that is solely configured for tax preparation and meets IRS standards for tax preparation. The tax return will be prepared using IRS provided tax preparation software that is password secured

7. Performing the quality review

A second volunteer always reviews the work of another volunteer to ensure quality standards are met. 8. Sharing the completed return

The Quality Reviewer will call the taxpayer and overview the reviewed return. This is done to ensure accuracy and to ensure the taxpayer understands the results from the tax return.

9. Signing the return

There will be two options for signing the tax return.

1. The preferred method is via E Signature sent to email. This will ensure the taxpayers do not need to return to the physical site.
 2. If E signature is not possible the quality reviewer will set up an appointment for the taxpayer to return to the site to sign.

10. E-filing the tax return

Upon receiving the signature either electronically or by paper volunteers will E file the return within 24 hours.

Part III: Taxpayer Consents:

Request to Review your Tax Return for Accuracy:

To ensure you are receiving quality services and an accurately prepared tax return at the volunteer site, IRS employees randomly select free tax preparation sites for review. If errors are identified, the site will make the necessary corrections. IRS does not keep any personal information from your reviewed tax return and this allows them to rate our VITA/TCE return preparation programs for accurately prepared tax returns. If you do not wish to have your return included as part of the review process, it will not affect the services provided to you at this site. If the site preparing this return is selected, do you consent to having your return reviewed for accuracy, by an IRS employee?

Yes No

Virtual Consent Disclosure:

If you agree to have your tax return prepared and your tax documents handled in the above manner, your signature and/or agreement is required on this document. Signing this document means that you are agreeing to the procedures stated above for preparing a tax return for you. (If this is a Married Filing Joint return both spouses must sign and date this document.) If you chose not to sign this form, we may not be able to prepare your tax return using this process. Since we are preparing your tax return virtually, we have to secure your consent agreeing to this process. If you agree to the disclosure of your tax return information, your consent is valid for the amount of time that you specify. If you do not specify the duration of your consent, your consent is valid for one year from the date of signature. If you believe your tax return information has been disclosed or used improperly in a manner unauthorized by law or without your permission, you may contact the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) by telephone at 1-800-366-4484, or by e-mail at complaints@tigta.treas.gov.
